

Introduction Workshop 25 July 2017

9:30 – 14:30, DESY, Building 1b, 2nd floor, Room 5

Agenda

9:30 PART 1: Welcome and introducing the participants

- Welcome by Dr. Angelika Paschke-Kratzin, Equal Opportunity Officer of Universität Hamburg and patron of dynamENT
- Goals of the workshop
- Round of introduction

Preparation:

- Select a picture (flower, landscape, animal, person etc.) which describes you best or simply something, from which you think that it pleases you or is important to you. Bring it to the workshop.

- How would you explain your research briefly to people who are not in your research field? Find a headline or question to describe your research like “What is Susy doing in the particle zoo? Can a computer become chancellor?” More ideas “Science on Tap”:

10:30 PART 2 Mentoring

- What is mentoring?

Preparation: Look at the reader

Short coffee break

11:10 PART 3: Mentee's Objectives

- Introduction IN-OUT-Model
- Reflect objectives
- Share objectives
- Write down and present findings

Preparation:

-Look at the IN-OUT-MODEL in the reader and do Step 1 (engage in free writing)

12:30 Lunch Break 45min

13:15 Part 4: Mentor/ Mentees responsibilities

- Role Mentee
- Role Mentor

13:45 PART 5: Networking

- What is a network?
- My network

14:15 PART 6: Final round

14:30 End